NUMB. 445

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From MONDAY September 27, to MONDAY October 4, 1742.

N.B. My Readers are deſired to excuſe this and the laſt Gazette's not coming out in their due Time, Sickneſs having prevented the ſame.

From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE for June 1742.

AFTER all the various Accounts that have been of the Battle of Czaſlaw, it appears probable that the Loſs of the Pruſſians was equal if not ſuperior to that of the Auſtrians. Prince Charles of Lorrain is ſaid to have manifeſted as much Conduct in his Retreat as Bravery in the Attack. And the Pruſſians were ſo far from purſuing them that they allowed the Booty taken from their own Camp to be carried off in their Sight.

On the 16th paſt Marſhal Toring joined the French Army in Bavaria, and the next Day, he, with the Duke de Harcourt, marched at the Head of all the Piquets of the Companies of their Grenadiers, and of five Men per Company, and 3000 Bavarian Horſe, to attack the Caſtle of Hilgersberg, on the North ſide of the Danube, and to take Poſſeſſion of a Bridge over the Danube; Count Ktevenhuller being encamp'd near Bleinting, South of that River. They were the more in Hopes of ſucceeding in this Enterprize, as they knew they had none but Croatians to oppoſe them. As ſoon as the Garriſon obſerved the Motions of the Enemy, they marched out, and being ſeconded by their Countrymen under Major General Helfreich, put themſelves in Order of Battle. They ſtood the regular Fire of the French with great Firmneſs, and fired in their Turn; and being found to be good Marks-men they aimed ſo well that they put the Enemy into Confuſion; then they flung their Fire-arms over their Shoulders, and attacking the French Sabre in Hand, broke their Ranks, and put them to Flight. The Croatians continued their Purſuit 'till late at Night, and would have followed the Enemy to their very Camp, but were prevented by their breaking down a Bridge over a Moraſs. Very few met with Quarter, and great Numbers of dead Bodies were found in the Roads and Woods, among them many Officers. A Nephew of the Duke de Harcourt was taken Priſoner, and the Enemy have loſt near 2000 Men; while the Croatians had only 8 Men killed, and 52 wounded.

General Berenklau on the 8th paſt was fortifying Munich with all Diligence, and being willing to favour his own Troops, employed 3500 of the Inhabitants and Peaſants, whom he obliges the Magiſtrates not only to pay, but to provide Materials. He had erected conſiderable Magazines, and filled them from thoſe of the Clergy, Abbeys, and Monaſteries, and has laid all Bavaria under Contribution, which, for want of Money, is paid in Corn, Forage, and Horſes.

Many Pieces of Cannon and other warlike Ammunition taken by the Auſtrians at Munich have been ſent to Paſſau, and Count Ktevenhuller continues to enrich Vienna with the Spoils of Bavaria.

As the Battle of Frauenberg mentioned in our laſt, the Auſtrians acknowledge the Loſs of only 200 Men, and that the French who greatly exceeded them in Number loſt many more; they add that Prince Lobkowitz retreated to Budweiſs in order to ſecure that Place from the Deſigns of the Enemy.

The French having paſſed 5000 Men at Teyn, under the Command of De Bouffler, on the Eaſt ſide of the Moldau in Bohemia, with Intention to take Tabor; Prince Charles of Lorrain fell upon them on the 25th paſt, and drove them thro' their very Camp, with prodigious Slaughter. The Duke however eſcaped by Flight with only two Regiments, but left behind ſome Cannon, four Standards, two pair of Colours, and all the Baggage. Marſhal Broglio on Advice of this Action, quitted his Camp with great Precipitation at Frauenberg, which Prince Lobkowitz thereupon entered and diſpatched his Croats and Huſſars, after the Enemy, who left in their Flight above 1000 Men; here Prince Lobkowitz found a conſiderable Booty, and even the Military Cheſt, in which was a Million of Livres. Prince Charles in the mean Time marching in a like Purſuit of the Body he had ſurprized at Teyn, joined Prince Lobkowitz near Wodnian; then detached Count Nadaſti, General of the Huſſars, and a conſiderable Party of Croats to attack Piſeck; but the Garriſon refuſing to ſurrender, the Croats paſſed the River with their Sabres in their Mouths, and approaching the Wall, ſtood one upon another, after the Manner of the Janizaries, making ſcaling Ladders of their Bodies, and appeared Sword in Hand over the Battlements. The Garriſon aſtoniſh'd at this Boldneſs, laid down their Arms, and ſurrender'd at Diſcretion, to the Number of 500 beſides 300 ſick. A conſiderable Magazine was found in the Town, and ſeveral other Magazines fell to the Auſtrians. The French amounting to little more than 13,000, continued their Rout to Prague, in the utmoſt Hurry and Confuſion, ſo that the Peaſants deſtroy'd many of them. Thoſe who firſt entered the City were in ſuch Haſte, as to ſhut the Gates upon the Reſt of their own Body. After recovering from their Conſternation, and being reinforced by the Troops about Egra, and 6000 others from France, they ſeem deſign'd to wait for the Auſtrians under the Cannon of Prague. Prince Charles reached Piſſenitz the 5th Inſtant. Prince Lobkowitz with 800 Huſſars advanced towards Piſen, and the Governor ſurrendered on the ſecond Summons. Here they found nine Braſs Cannon and ſix Mortars, beſides a large Magazine of Corn, Flour, Bread, Hay and Straw. The Garriſon conſiſting of 540 Soldiers and 28 Officers were made Priſoners of War. This Poſt is of the more Importance, as it puts the Auſtrians in a Condition of cutting off the Enemy's Communication with Bavaria. From this Place, which is about Ten Leagues from Prague; it was expected that Prince Charles would proceed directly to that Capital. General Feſtitz who commands in Silеſia and Moravia has been ordered to march into Bohemia.

'Tis affirm'd that Prague is ſurrendered.

On the 18th paſt, three principal Officers of the Huſſars waited on Prince Charles without their Swords, and preſented him a Paper to this Effect. 'Our Hearts are oppreſſed with Grief and ſunk in Shame, when we reflect 'on our Conduct at Czaſlaw. May it pleaſe your Royal 'Highneſs to forgive thoſe who can never forgive themſelves 'till they have waſhed away this Stain with their 'own Blood and that of their Enemies.' And Prince Charles in a Letter to the Queen tells her, 'In the Action 'at Teyn the Huſſars made an ample Attonement for their 'Fault, for they purſued the Enemy quite through their 'Camp, without ſtopping a Moment, to plunder, for which 'they they were sufficiently recompenced by the Enemy's Baggage, &c.

To be concluded in our next.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 4.

Since our last arrived here Capt Parsons from Jamaica, who was sent by this Government, on the late Occasion, with an Express to Admiral Vernon. He confirms the News we had (via Providence) of the arriving of two Men of War and six Transports, at Jamaica, with Men to settle an Island in the Bay of Honduras call Ratton, (not Rio) and adds, that they were sail'd for the said Island, before he came out; That the Men of War which the Admiral had sent to demolish the Town and Fort of Barracoa, had been before that Port, where they divided to Cruise, and sent one Dorset to inform him that they cou'd find no anchoring Ground, and therefore not attack the Place, so that we will doubtless have some of their Privateers again quickly on our Coast, unless the Miscarriage of the late Expedition against this Province has daunted them. Capt Parsons says he met the Revenge, Capt Draper (one of the Men of War that has been before Barracoa) in the Windward Passage, which had but a few Days before taken a large Spanish Schooner, off Cape Francois, with 40 Tons of Cocoa and many other rich Goods on Board, besides a Box of Jewels of great Value and 12,000 Pieces of Eight in Specie. The Land Forces now at Jamaica are in very good Health, and encamp'd at Port Royal.

We hear that a great Hurricane hath lately been felt at Barbados, which has done considerable Damage. If Particulars can be got, they'll be in our next.

The Hawk Man of War is fallen down into Rebellion-Road, in order to go on a Cruise.

From Port Royal we hear, that the Charles Town and Beaufort Gallies are arrived there, to the great Satisfaction of the People residing in the Southern Parts of this Province.

In our last it was inserted, That Mr Edward Gough was married to Mrs. Mary Elliot, Widow; but we are since assured that they are not married, and that the Person who brought the Information thereof had been imposed upon.

The Prize Snow in the Service of the Government, is, we hear, put into Edisto, having lost her Anchors and received some Damage in that Gale of Wind, wherein Mr. Pharoah (one of our Pilots) lost his Boat.

Whereas GEORGE SAXBY, Esq; hath lately obtained a Warrant under his Majesty's Royal Sign Manuel, appointing him Receiver General of all Quit Rents, Fines and Forfeitures in this Province; I do hereby give Notice, That I have no farther Business or Power to receive the same, and all Payments thereon for the future are to be paid to him the said George Saxby.

JOHN HAMMERTON

I GIVE this publick Notice to all Persons who have any Quit Rents to pay, That I am the only Person to receive the same; His Majesty having by a Warrant under his Royal Sign Manuel appointed me Receiver General of this Province; And it is expected no Person will be so backward in paying their said Rents as they have been, for I am determined to collect them according to the Quit Rent Law; so all those who do not very soon come and settle their said Rents must expect no Favour, for it is what must be paid every Year; and if neglected for Three Months after the 25th of March every Year, such Defaulters may depend on Executions being granted against them; although I know it is the Opinion of some, That they are to pay only every Three Years, and some others there are, who never enter Memorials of their Land when sold, who must be obliged to pay Quit-Rent for the same 'till it is entered in the Auditor's Office, for whose better Guidance I have here inserted part of the 9th and the 12th Paragraph of the Quit Rent Law, and I hope no Person will plead Ignorance thereof for the future, for I am determined to grant Executions against all those who do not pay very soon after this Advertisement, the Time being now expired; For, by Experience I find, Indulgence makes People worse; so hope no Persons whatsoever will think themselves ill used if they find me as good as my Promise, which I assure them I will do; for it cannot be expected that I must ask every one for his Quit-Rents; neither must they ever expect another Advertisement after this, as it is here mentioned to be paid every 25th of March, according to the following Paragraphs of the Quit Rent Law; for as I received very particular Orders about the Quit-Rents, if they are not paid it shall be my Fault. And as to those residing in Craven County, I'll give my Attendance on them at George-Town, the first Day of January next, and stay Twenty Days, at which Time I hope they will meet me and pay their Quit Rents then due, or they must expect the same Fate; for I am determined not to leave the County 'till I get in the Rents.

GEORGE SAXBY

Here follows Part of the 9th and the 12th Paragraph of the Quit Rent Law.

9th. ' —— BE it further Enacted by the Authority ' aforesaid, That if any of the Quit Rents whatsoever, that ' shall become due to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, ' from and after the Passing of this Act, out of any Mes- ' suages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments whatsoever, ' within this Province, shall happen to be behind and un- ' paid by the Space of Three Months next over or after ' the said 25th of March, that then it shall and may be law- ' ful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by ' his and their Officers, Ministers and Bailiffs, appointed ' or to be appointed, and duely sworn for that Purpose, in- ' to all or any Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, respec- ' tively whatsoever, to enter and make reasonable Distress ' upon the Goods and Chattels of the Owners, in whatso- ' ever Part of the Province the same can be found, near- ' est to Charles-Town.

12th. ' AND be it further Enacted by the Authority ' aforesaid, That in case any Person or Persons whatsoe- ' ver, possessed of any Messuages, Lands or Tenements in ' this Province, after having registered their Patents, Grants ' or Deeds, or Memorial thereof, or Memorials of the last ' Will or Probate thereof, in the Office of his Majesty's ' Auditor or Deputy as aforesaid, shall sell or dispose of ' such Messuages, Lands or Tenements, or any part there- ' of, he shall cause a new Memorial to be made of the ' Indenture, or Deed, by which the said Messuages, Lands ' or Tenements, are so disposed of, (Town-Lots excepted) ' to be exhibited and filed with his Majesty's Auditor, or ' his Deputy, and if devised away by Will, then the De- ' visee, Executors or Administrators, shall exhibit a Me- ' morial of such Will, that is to say, the Testator and ' Devisee's Names, the Date of the Will, and the Clause ' of such Will whereby the same is devised away, & then ' and from thenceforth upon Payment of all Arrears then ' due, the Persons only to whom such Messuages, Lands ' or Tenements are conveyed over or devised, shall stand ' chargeable only with the Payment of the Quit Rents ' from thenceforth to grow due, out of such Messuages, ' Lands or Tenements, and in case only part thereof be ' conveyed away or devised, then upon exhibiting a Me- ' morial in Manner as aforesaid, and paying all Arrears ' of Quit-Rents then due, the said Auditor or his Depu- ' ty, is hereby required to apportion the Rents accordingly, ' ly, and to charge the same on such new Purchaser or De- ' visee, paying the usual Fees as aforesaid. '
